What makes a good sentence? - Worksheet

1. Is this a complete sentence? Answer Yes or No.

   1. Thinking positively about solutions.

   2. Plagiarism, using other people’s writing without referencing.

   3. Plagiarism is cheating.

   4. Simultaneously supported by national and international legislation

2. Is this a single sentence? Answer Yes or No.

   1. An essay should present an argument, consequently its content will make sense.

   2. An essay should argue a case, so that its content makes sense.

   3. Generally, arguments should build up through the essay, their conclusions should appear to lead on from thoughts already expressed.

   4. If an essay presents an argument, its content will make sense.